

A reminder of some of the great online events we have planned for you...

SCULPTURE GARDEN TOUR/TALK: Wednesday, February 10, 2.30pm – £5

Join Victoria Leedham for a tour and talk about the magical Hannah Peschar Sculpture Garden with its ever-changing display, set in the Surrey countryside. Closing date: February 9.

COFFEE AND CAKE WITH WI ADVISERS: Tuesday, February 16, 10am. FREE

A get-together with your Advisers and other members for chat and a chance to play the Generation Game with Judith Broome. Have coffee and cake ready!

BEHIND THE TAPE: Thursday, February 18, 6-7pm, £5

Hayley Scott is a former Metropolitan Police Crime Scene Examiner (CSI) with over a decade's worth of experience. Find out what actually happens beyond the crime scene tape as Hayley shares her stories and answers your questions. Closing date: Wednesday, February 17.

HEDGEHOGS AND BIRDS ~ WILDLIFE TALKS BY EXPERTS ~ £5 each

Wednesday, February 17
10am-11.30am

Our wild European hedgehog has declined by 97% over the past 50 years. Dr Mike Berwick, a volunteer with the Wildlife Aid Foundation, will tell us what the charity is doing, and how we can help to preserve this delightful garden visitor. Closing date: Tuesday, February 16.

Monday, March 8, 6pm-7pm

Alan Sharpe of the RSPB will introduce you to the birds of the Surrey countryside, including some lesser-known species, in his attractively illustrated talk. And he will reveal the ten most common birds to be seen in our county.

Closing date: Monday, March 8.

PAINTING WITH ACRYLICS: Thursday, February 25: 6pm-7pm, £6.50

Join Alice Tomkins as she demonstrates the technique of painting with acrylics, from canvas selection to final framing options. A series of videos will illustrate the different stages of creation and you can paint along with her if you wish. Closing date: Monday, February 22.

DAY COURSE: YOUR HOME IN STITCHES: Friday, March 5, 10am-4pm ~ £25

Does a house or building hold a special memory for you? Then why not capture it in textile art? Find out how on this one day course led by author, artist and tutor Anne Kelly. She will show you how to create a mixed media collage using items from your fabric collection and charity shop finds. The piece will be embellished and richly decorated to create a special souvenir or gift and can be added to a larger piece at a later date if desired. A list of items you will need was published in the January edition of Surrey WI News (available on MyWI) or from SFWI. Closing date: Tuesday, March 2.

BAKE-OFF AND BEYOND, Tuesday, March 16, 6.30-7.30pm £5

Howard Middleton was a contestant on The Great British Bake-Off in 2013 when Mary Berry was on the programme. He will tell us about his early inspiration and motivation for baking, the audition process, highlights of his time on the show and some of the weird and wonderful opportunities that have come his way since.

HOW TO BOOK Through our website: www.surreyfedwi.org.uk or www.eventbrite.co.uk (enter SFWI in search box). Don't delay as it's first come, first served! Check with social media as new events may be added. Fuller details of these events are in the January/February editions of Surrey WI News.
